

Biography - John Grayson

The Rev. John Grayson is a retired Episcopal/Anglican priest. He served the Episcopal Church USA for 20 years in the Diocese of Southern Virginia and the Diocese of East Carolina. In both dioceses he served on the Ecumenical Commissions. In addition to serving in the Episcopal Church, he served for 11 additional years in the Anglican Mission in the Americas, retiring in 2011. John has always sought to embrace brothers and sisters in Christ regardless of denominational affiliation ...for the purpose of stepping deeper into the River of God's Power and Love. A heartfelt prayer of his is for REVIVAL in the Body of Christ, and for a great outpouring of the Holy Spirit Who is the One Who will bring Revival.

John and his wife, Bettie Lou "Roo", have been married 45 years and have one son, Christopher. They reside in Morehead City, NC.
