

Biography - John S. Pullen

Raleigh, NC

- John grew up in a Christian family in the Deep South in the '50's and 60's- a time of great transition in our Country and the Church.
- He was educated at: The University of the South, BA 1970, Sewanee, TN.
The University of Virginia, MEd 1975, Charlottesville,VA ,.
- Career began in education as teacher/coach at prep schools: St. Stephen's School , Alexandria, VA, & Westminster Schools , Atlanta, GA.
- Transitioned into business in 1979 as a financial advisor in New Bern, NC, and Raleigh, NC, where he founded his own financial services firm in 1991- Atlantic Capital Management, LLC. In 1997, he sold his company to another firm, CAPTRUST Financial Advisors, where he continues to work to this day.
- Attends Kings Park International Church in Raleigh, NC, where he especially enjoys working with international students from NC State, UNC, Duke University, and several smaller colleges in the area.
- Serves on the Board for the African Children's Choir, and for The Refuge Ranch, a drug and alcohol treatment program for women in Okeechobee, FL.